GREAT GATHERING AT MINNEAPOLIS

BIG EPISCOPAL CONVENTION IS IN SESSION.

Large Attendance of the Most Prominent Divines of the Church—Meeting May Decide to Revise Constitution and Canons—Bishop Williams Expresses Regret.

Minneapolis, Oct. 3.—An imposing religious service marked yesterday the opening of the triennial council of the Protestant Episcopal church in the United States. Within the walls of the Church of Gethsemane, the leading Episcopal parish of the northwest, were assembled the greatest minds of the clergy and laity of this powerful denomination. It was a distinguished gathering of distinguished men, one eminently representative of the wealthiest religious body of the American continent. The service opened at 11 o'clock and was preceded by a procession of eighty bishops, all robed in their canons. At 3:30 in the afternoon the house of the deputies was formally organized in the same church.

Momentous to the Protestant Episcopal church is the present gathering, from the fact that before it adjourns in three weeks, the present law and government of the denomination may have been revolutionized. The general convention of 1892 appointed a joint commission to revise the constitution and canons which are the statutes of the Episcopalian and a copy of the report of this body has been in the hands of each and every delegate for several weeks.

The report of the commission is a pamphlet of nearly a hundred closely printed pages. Summarized, its most important recommendation is the creation of a "primus" (corresponding to an archbishop in the Catholic church), to be elected by a majority vote of the bishops from one of their own number. The creation of a general synod is also recommended, and as such a body would entirely supersede the triennial councils, the present gathering is consequently called upon to sign its own death warrant and that of its successors. The synod is to consist of every bishop of the church having jurisdiction and of three presbyters and laymen of each diocese. If it is decided to create an archbishop there will be a contest between the friends of Bishops Williams of Connecticut, Coxe of New York, Pare of Maryland and McLaren of Illinois. Bishop Potter, of New York, also has many friends.

A portion of the report which will cause much discussion is that recommending the grouping of five dioceses into a province, to be presided over by a bishop who shall be elected by the other bishops. This is not entirely an innovation, as the three dioceses of Illinois have, ever since the creation of the diocese of Chicago, been organized into a province, of which Bishop McLaren is the primate. There is also an organization of the New York dioceses on a somewhat similar plan.

The house of bishops was called to order by Bishop Whipple, of Minnesota, who presides in the absence of Bishop Williams, of Connecticut. Bishop Doane, of Albany, was elected chairman. There was a brief religious ceremony connected with the announcement of the death of several bishops since the last convention, several committees were appointed, and then the house of bishops took a recess until today.

The house of deputies had a rather interesting meeting from the fact that the commission on revision of the constitution made a report, and asked for further time to consider the revision of the canons. At the request of the commission, the report was made a special order for today, and will be considered to a finish. Rev. Morgan Dix, of New York city, was unanimously re-elected president of the house and made a brief speech in acknowledgment. Rev. Charles L. Hutchins, of Concord, Mass., was unanimously re-elected secretary.

A telegram was sent to Bishop Williams, expressing regret at his illness, and hoping for his recovery. The commission on church unity was instructed to have printed all the correspondence which it had carried on with the representatives of other churches. The house of deputies will hold daily sessions.

Important Evidence Given.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—A special dispatch to the Record says: "The Sangamon county grand jury, it is understood, has secured damaging evidence against at least one member of the house of representatives. It is learned on good authority that such evidence was given by Thomas Bunn, of Bloomington. Mr. Bunn is secretary of the Interstate Building and Loan association, and was here last winter in the interests of certain legislation pending before the committee on building and loan associations. He testified that he paid about $500 in 'attorney's fees' to Representative Gibson for looking after some matters. He came here in response to a telegram and had a talk with Gibson about the legislation he wanted pushed and on Gibson's advice retained him as an attorney, paying him between $400 and $500. Gibson was a member of the committee in which this building and loan legislation was locked up."

EUCCHARISTIC CONGRESS.

Opening Session of Catholics at Washington, D. C.

Washington, Oct. 3.—The opening yesterday of the first eucharistic congress to be held in the United States was preceded by the celebration of high pontifical mass in the Church of St. Patrick. Mgr. Satoli, the apostolic delegate, was the celebrant. Cardinal Gibbons and twenty archbishops and bishops were within the altar rails, and the edifice was filled to overflowing by members of the Catholic clergy from all parts of the country. In the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the opening session of the congress was held within the walls of the Catholic university. The congress is the outcome of a convention held in August of last year at Notre Dame, Ind., and is under the auspices of the Priests' Eucharistic League, which has for its object the promotion of devotion to the holy eucharist. The league has 35,000 members in Europe, 2,000 in the United States and a large number in Asia, Africa and South America.

The session will continue for three days. There are eight papers to be read, of interest mainly to the clergy, as they are on doctrinal subjects.

At the session of the congress in the afternoon Cardinal Gibbons read the apostolic benediction from the pope.

The archbishops of the Catholic church, representing the chief authority in actual church work, held a meeting at the Catholic university yesterday. The meeting was secret, and those present were not inclined to make public the results. It was said, however, by one of the archbishops that the discussion was confined to questions of discipline within the several dioceses, and that no case of special moment was taken up. Later in the day a special committee, consisting of Cardinal Gibbons and Archbishops Corrigan and Kain, considered the question of reorganization of the Catholic bureau of Indian missions in accordance with the requirements of congressional enactment.

STRIKE MAY SPREAD.

Mass Meeting of Illinois Miners Makes Demands.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 3.—The strike of all the coal miners along the Peoria and Pekin Union Road threatens to grow into a general strike. The striking miners on the Peoria and Pekin Railroad at East Peoria and on the Iowa Central in Peoria territory held a mass meeting at the Bartonville Town Hall yesterday and afterward made a demand upon the operators for an increase through the whole scale of wages. For run of mine coal they ask 53 cents per ton; for entry coal $1.50 per yard; for drivers $2 per ton, an increase of 20 cents; for trackmen, $2.50, an increase of 25 cents. After the meeting delegates appointed by the meeting met with some of the operators, who agreed to concede to the increased scale of wages, provided a corresponding raise could be obtained in the market for the coal, and the men at East Peoria mines and some of the Iowa Central line returned to work on this condition. Others, however, are holding out, and there is a question as to whether the market rate can be advanced.

FIRE AT CAMBRIDGE, OHIO.

Serious Conflagration in the Business Portion of the City.

Cambridge, O., Oct. 3.—The business portion of this city was destroyed by fire yesterday, with a loss of over $100,000. The alarm was given about 1 o'clock. The wind drove the flames and the firemen were powerless. Telegrams for assistance were sent to neighboring cities. One man was burned to death—Frank Law, employed at Davis' livery stable.

French Spies Arrested in Germany.

Berlin, Oct. 3.—Acting upon information received, the authorities of Cologne have taken into custody several additional persons, who are charged with being connected with what seems to be a thoroughly organized attempt to spy upon different fortified positions in Germany. It is said that the parties arrested at Cologne are either French officers or men in the employ of the French government.

Christian Adventists Meet.

Elgin, Ill., Oct. 3.—The third quarterly meeting of the Northern Illinois conference of the Advent Christian church began here Tuesday night. The territory of conference is all the territory in Illinois, north of Joliet. No business of importance has been done, preaching and social intercourse occupying the time.

Toledo in the Western League.

Toledo, Ohio, Oct. 3.—It has been practically settled that Toledo will be one of the cities taken into the Western Baseball League next year. Columbus will likely be the eighth city in the league.

Gen. Mahone Still Alive.

Washington, Oct. 3.—There has been no material change in Gen. Mahone's condition. No hope is held out by his physician, who, however, says that the general may remain in his present state for a day more.

Window Glass Works Resume.

Muncie, Ind., Oct. 3.—The Gilman Window Glass works, located just west of this city, which has been in the hands of a receiver, will resume within about two weeks, with about one hundred hands.

PULL OFF THE FIGHT IN NEW BRUNSWICK

BOSTON SPORTS CLAIM TO HAVE THE "HUNCH."

Fredericton is the Town Chosen They Say—Mill Cannot Come Off In Texas as the Anti-Prize Fighting Law Passed Is to Go Into Effect At Once.

Boston, Oct. 3.—It is reported in racing circles here that the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight may be brought off at Fredericton, New Brunswick.

Austin, Tex., Oct. 3.—There will be no prize fight at Dallas Oct. 31 between Corbett and Fitzsimmons. This fact was settled yesterday afternoon by the Texas legislature in exactly three hours. The two committees are in the senate and the other in the house, gave an audience to the Dallas attorneys all the morning to ascertain their objections and protests to the passage of the law. In the afternoon when the two houses met at 3 o'clock both committees were ready to report and the senate bill was promptly considered. From the time the bill was placed before the senate until it finally passed was fifty-five minutes. The vote on the final passage of the bill was 27 years and 1 nay. The bill was immediately sent over to the house and at 4 o'clock that body began discussing it, substituting the senate bill for the house bill. After several gentlemen had spoken on the bill and the emergency feature pro and con, a final vote was reached at 6 o'clock precisely, and the bill passed the house by a vote of 110 to 5. Thus, within three hours did the Texas legislature forever put an end to prize fighting in Texas.

Gov. Culberson's friends consider it a great victory for him, and lost no opportunity to congratulate him on the outcome of one of the hottest, and, it might be safely termed, one of the bitterest, as well as shortest, political fights ever brought up in the Lone Star State on any one single man.

The bill that will prohibit prize fighting in Texas in the future, reads as follows: "Be it enacted by the legislature of the state of Texas, that any person who shall voluntarily engage in a pugilistic encounter between man and man, or a fight between a man and a bull, or any other animal, for money or other thing of value, or of any championship, or upon the result of which any money or anything of value is bet or wagered, or to see which any admission fee is charged, either directly or indirectly, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and upon conviction, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than two or more than five years."

When the prize fight bill was under discussion in the house Representative Evans of Hunt offered an amendment to strike out the clause with reference to a fight between a man and a bull, claiming that its presence in the bill made it unconstitutional. As there was some discussion on the matter in the lobbies, Mr. Evans was interviewed and, in reply to a question, said:

"The senate bill which passed the house, contains two subjects, and is in violation of article 2, section 35, of the constitution of the state of Texas, which provides that no law shall contain more than one subject, which shall be expressed in its title. A plain and simple law against prize-fighting was the cause for the assembling of the twenty-fourth legislature, and, as representatives, we should not have endangered the law by attempting to prohibit brutal practices that only occur in a foreign country."

Fight Will Be Pulled Off Somewhere.

Dallas, Texas, Oct. 3.—Dallas people thronged the streets last night discussing the news from Austin, and the general sentiment is that the question is finally settled and that all idea of holding the mill here must be abandoned. Dan Stuart says the officers of the Florida Athletic club will meet here or in New York and decide what is best to be done. They have three points in view as a location, but decline to name them at present. Stuart says the fight will positively be pulled off somewhere.

FOR THE GOLD STANDARD.

Massachusetts Democrats Against Free Silver.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 3.—The Massachusetts democratic state convention met yesterday in Mechanics' Hall. The platform adopted commends the present national administration for its conduct of foreign affairs, congratulates the manufacturing interests of the country on the successful operation of the new tariff, and denounces the efforts of the republican party to reopen this question. It demands the maintenance of the existing gold standard, and opposes the free coinage of silver bullion, and demands that the government shall retire its paper money. It favors the grant of the secretary of the treasury of the power to make short loans to maintain the gold balance of the treasury. It also denounces the American Protective Association by name. A full ticket was nominated as follows: Governor, George Fred Williams; Lieutenant-Governor, James S. Grinnell; Secretary of State, Edward J. Flynn; Treasurer and Receiver General, Eben S. Stevens; Attorney General, Henry F. Hurlbut; Auditor, Alfred C. Williams.

STREETS ARE FULL OF FIGHTING MEN

SERIOUS RIOT IN TURKEY'S CAPITAL.

Armenians Goaded to Desperation By Turkish Cruelties, Attack Soldiers and Police—Revolt Put Down In Short Order—Garrison Kept Under Arms.

Constantinople, Oct. 3.—Five hundred arrests have been made in connection with the recent rioting of Armenians here. The government is greatly alarmed, and the garrison is kept under arms.

Armenians had determined to make an attempt to present a petition to the Sultan, through the Grand Vizier. A large body of Armenians marched with this intention on Monday toward the palace of the Porte. The authorities, in anticipation of trouble, had stationed a strong force of police about the palace, and the other public buildings were also guarded. The arrival of the Armenians at the palace was the signal for several desperate encounters between them and the police, during which several Turks and a number of Armenians were killed or wounded. A conservative estimate of the affair places the killed at ten, with forty persons severely wounded. In addition, as already cabled, about 500 arrests were made.

The rioting was continued almost throughout the remainder of the day, and alarmed the government that the garrison was hastily ordered under arms, and has been so ever since, night and day, the troops being rigorously confined to their barracks. The arresting of Armenians went on all day Monday and Tuesday, and was accompanied by more bloodshed, several Armenians who resisted attempts made to take them into custody being killed while fighting the police. In addition, eight Armenians were killed within the precincts of the Ministry of Police, where, besides, many persons were wounded.

The Turks were greatly enraged at the outbreak and threatened vengeance upon the Armenians. As a result, during the evening of Monday a body of Softas (Mohammedan students of theology), armed with ugly-looking sticks, assembled in the public square, threatening to start out and massacre the Armenians; but the authorities hurried several detachments of police to the spot and the Mohammedan students were eventually dispersed.

The authorities are doing everything possible to belittle the affair, but there is no denying that it was a most serious disturbance, and that more trouble is in store.

The Turkish government, in its efforts to calm the apprehension experienced on all sides, has sent a quieting circular to the envoys of the different foreign countries here.

At the palace the utmost consternation is said to prevail, and every precaution has been taken to suppress further outbreaks on the part of the dissatisfied Armenians.

Report Confirmed by Minister Terrell.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Secretary Olney yesterday received the following cablegram from United States Minister Terrell, at Constantinople: "Monday several hundred Armenians marched on the Porte professedly to ask redress of grievances. The Patriarch tried to prevent it. A conflict occurred between Armenians and police. Probably about sixty Turks and Armenians were killed. Yesterday several more were killed and last night eighty were killed. Several hundred are imprisoned. The Porte has notice of the demonstration, which they say was organized by leaders of the Hunchartist revolutionists whom they had captured. Much terror exists. I think the Porte will be able to resist the fanaticism."

Terrific Gales Along English Coast.

London, Oct. 3.—The intense heat which has prevailed throughout Great Britain during the past ten days, a state of affairs classed as unprecedented in weather records for the time of the year, culminated in a sudden drop of twenty-five degrees in the temperature. This was followed by a heavy gale, which has already caused much damage along the coasts. The full extent of the ravages of the gale will naturally not be known for some days to come, but there is no doubt that the shipping interests have suffered considerably. No damage to American shipping has been reported up to the present.

Man Boiled in a Sugar Kettle.

Edwardsville, Ala., Oct. 3.—Two men named Humphreis and Bryant became involved in a quarrel around sugar kettles, when Humphreis struck Bryant on the head with a club, crushing his skull and knocking him into the boiling kettle. Humphreis then dragged his dying victim out and placed his body in the furnace. Parties near by ran to the rescue and pulled Bryant out, but he was dead, being horribly burned. Humphreis has fled to the mountains, where he is armed, and defies arrest. He will be taken dead or alive, and if taken alive he will be speedily lynched.

Hog Cholera Epidemic.

Princeton, Ill., Oct. 3.—Hog cholera has broken out in various sections of Bureau county and several thousand hogs have already succumbed to the disease. Severe cases are reported from six townships. The Melvin brothers of Walnut have lost over a hundred head of hogs each.

Forest Fires Make Orchards Bloom.

Coloma, Mich., Oct. 3.—Many orchard trees in North Coloma have been forced into blossom by the heat from the forest fires that have been burning in that vicinity during the past

NATIONAL LEAGUE AVERAGES.

Batting and Fielding Percentages of the Leaders.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—The batting fielding of the National League players for 1895 are herewith presented. As was expected, Jesse Burkett, Cleveland's left fielder, leads the batsmen. Burkett and Delehanty, of Philadelphia, were the only players to reach the 400 mark in batting, Burkett hitting up to 408, while Duffy last year hit 434. Hamilton, who has led the league in base running year by year, does so again, although Lange and McGraw did some great work in stealing cushions. Clemens, Philadelphia's grand old catcher, leads the backstops. Staley, now a discard, heads the pitchers, a trick which he has performed before. Carey, the wonderful Baltimore youngster, leads at first. Jack Brooks, playing the best ball of his life, tops the second basemen. Dave Cross, probably the best of all round players, ranks first among third basemen. Jennings leads the short-stops with a well-earned and marvelous record. "Yale" Murphy made no errors in the out field.

COUNTY MEN WIN.

Chicago City Faction Beaten at Republican Primaries.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—At 1 o'clock this morning the conditions governing today's republican convention were simplified. Lloyd Smith appeared at the county headquarters of the Great Northern hotel and announced that the city faction was satisfied that it was in a minority. It desired to have him, as chairman of the county central committee, call the convention to order, when the county folks could go ahead with the organization and name their chairman and other officers. The city faction might present contests in a number of the wards, but this would be for the purpose of satisfying their own people rather than with any notion that the make-up of the convention would be changed. A majority of 100 was conceded to the county on the face of the credentials.

Demand Deep Water.

Topeka, Kan., Oct. 3.—The deep-water conference yesterday was organized with Senator Vest of Missouri as permanent chairman. Committee on resolutions was appointed from fifteen interested states. The burden of the talk was for cheaper rail rates to the gulf, and by the aid of deep-water harbors, a closer relation with South American commerce. The establishment of the "committee on utilization" means that the convention was willing to delegate to those representatives full power to "act." If this committee deems it proper it will decide on an inter-American or any other exposition, and the delegates of this convention will be bound to stand by the scheme.

Press Agent for Spain.

New York, Oct. 3.—Hillary Bell has been officially appointed as news representative of the Spanish government in this country. The insurgent cause has direct relations with the papers of the United States and the Spanish minister has deemed it wise that communication should be established between the Spanish government and the American press. One of the first acts of Mr. Bell was to send to the papers a denial of recent statements that Spain had decided to employ the most drastic methods in the suppression of the insurrection in Cuba.

ROMEO AND JULIET ADMIRABLY DONE

JULIA MARLOWE TABER IS A WINSOME CAPULET.

She Has Gained In Power Greatly During the Last Year and Gives to the Impassioned Parts a New Force—Her Audience Was of Disappointing Proportions.

Julia Marlowe Taber and Robert Taber presented Romeo and Juliet last evening before an audience that made up in appreciation what it lacked in size. It was not such an audience as the production deserved. Every seat should have been filled for not even the excuse of high prices could be offered.

Mrs. Taber's diversity of talent is such that the spectator is led to believe always that the character being portrayed is her best. She is a merry, captivating, whimsical, Rosalind and winning Viola and a dashing Prince Hal but by the lines of cold criticism she is greatest as Juliet.

In the last twelve months she has gained greatly and those in her audience last night who had not seen her in a year or more were astonished at the strides she had made in capacity to read the lines. All straining for effect in the more impassioned parts was gone and in its place was the intensity of assured command. Her voice last night was exquisite. At no time did it seem forced and the modulation was wonderful. The order of the love scenes and the magnificent portrayal of the tragic developments of the play, gave inspiring evidence of the power.

Mr. Taber Strong as Romeo.

Mr. Taber was an admirable Romeo. He looked the part, and played it with a vigor that was altogether delightful. The suggestion of reserved force that he gave in the tomb scene followed a convent scene played with despairing fierceness, but lost nothing by the contrast.

Mr. Coleman as Mercutio was excellent, even though his gaiety did not at all times ring quite true. Mrs. Sol Smith was an admirable Nurse and Dodson L. Mitchell as Capulet was forceful and impetuous, perhaps a trifle too much so in the ball scene. The support as a whole was good.

Hearty applause followed each curtain, and Mr. and Mrs. Taber were four times called upon to bow their acknowledgments. In spite of these marks of appreciation, however, Mrs. Taber said laughingly after the performance:

"See how you've treated me. I'm never coming to Janesville again."

This evening the company play in Beloit, "Twelfth Night" being the bill.

CHARMING LOTA COMES OCT. 11

She Will Appear at the Myers Grand Under Presbyterian Auspices.

The New York Record in speaking of Miss Leotta, who is to appear at the Myers Grand under the auspices of the Presbyterian church on October 11, says: "All were delighted with Leotta. She possesses a versatile talent. Her scope of attainment is unlimited; her voice is her slave; with it she awakens every grand and emoting emotion within you. Your eye dimmed at her portrayal of the sad, the pitiful, leaps joyously free as with her deft mastery she "strikes the chord of mirth." To whatever depths or heights of impersonation the most daring students of voice work have ventured, there too is Leotta, not as a mimic but as a master.

Leotta is an indefatigable student and her program embraces selections in every branch of dramatic art. She eliminates from her work those pestilential affections usually so objectionable in lady electionists, and endeavors even

SOME MINOR THEATRICAL GOSPI.

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN" is a familiar name to patrons of the theatre, yet the performance of this play, strange as it may seem to the habitual frequenter of the playhouse, is always enjoyed and liberally patronized by a vast element that rarely, if ever, attend the house of Thespis unless it be when the play named is given. The attraction will appear at Myers' opera house Saturday afternoon and evening.

"THE OLD HOMESTEAD," that quaint human picture of rural New England, so admirably conceived and illustrated by Denman Thomson, comes to the Opera House next Tuesday night, with a complete cast of good people, some of them long associated with their respective roles.

NO NEW JANESEVILLE STUDENTS.
However, All of the Old Ones are Back at The University.

Madison, Oct. 3.—The official list of new students has not been published, but from reports Janesville is not represented among the new students. This has not happened in many years and should not occur with a town the size of Janesville, especially when located so near one of the greatest universities in the country. With a few exceptions all of the old students from Janesville are back.

George Brownell entered in electrical engineering last year, but exchanged his course to the civic historical on returning this year.

Stanley Talman has entered freshman in electrical engineering this fall. His work last spring and at the summer school gives him a number of studies to his credit.

F. Cleghorn, of Clinton, was appointed chairman of the Committee on Appeals. A sensation was caused when the reports of the Grand Lodge officers were presented, showing a decrease in membership of over 1,300 and a falling off in the number of lodges of twenty-three. At attack is made on the Wisconsin State Agricultural Society for permitting sale of liquor on the State fair grounds and on the last legislature for failing to pass the bill fixing a saloon license-limit around the Soldiers' home. The Keeley cure legislation by the legislature is endorsed.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB'S MEETING TOMORROW NIGHT.

First Session Will Be Held At the Home of Walter Helms Although the Members Hope to Get the High School Science Room Later On—The Winter's Program.

Tomorrow night the work of the Fortnightly club begins, the first meeting being held at Walter Helms' residence. After that it is hoped the science room in the new high school building will be available. It is held by many that work of a strictly educational sort, such as the Fortnightly club, the University association and the Clio-philic should be encouraged by the city to this extent. The cost of opening the room would be slight, and the benefit to the city from these clubs is not inconsiderable. The Fortnightly programme with the leaders for the year illustrates this. It is as follows:

the Good Templars

George I. Stratton, the local representative to the Grand Lodge of the Wisconsin Good Templars now in session at Green Bay, was made a chairman of the Committee on Good Templars' Mutual Benefit Association, while Captain J. F. Cleghorn, of Clinton, was appointed chairman of the Committee on Appeals. A sensation was caused when the reports of the Grand Lodge officers were presented, showing a decrease in membership of over 1,300 and a falling off in the number of lodges of twenty-three. At attack is made on the Wisconsin State Agricultural Society for permitting sale of liquor on the State fair grounds and on the last legislature for failing to pass the bill fixing a saloon license-limit around the Soldiers' home. The Keeley cure legislation by the legislature is endorsed.

THE SUFFRAGISTS AT EVANSVILLE

The Sessions Are Largely Attended the Church Being Facted.

Evansville, Oct. 3.—The town of Evansville is turned over to the suffragists. At the Central house, the home of Mrs. C. A. Wood, have been established headquarters. Mrs. Olympia Brown is living there and the parlors have been turned over to the delegates who are constantly calling on the president. The first day of the convention set the gait of the whole week. The opening lecture by Mrs. Carrie Chapman-Catt, chairman of the national organization committee was a very telling speech in favor of suffrage. Her line of argument was clearly defined and reasonable. She recommended the giving of suffrage to women to counteract the foreign vote cast by men who come here without families, thus raising the Americanism of the ballot.

Mrs. Catt is a woman of rare gifts which have been developed by a broad education and extensive travel.

Wednesday forenoon was taken up by business and discussions. The principal question discussed was joining the national movement. Mrs. Catt presented the matter so forcibly that later in the day the matter was carried favorably. The last day of the convention will be important as the committee upon nominations is much at a loss as to the right persons to suggest for the principal offices. The meetings are held in the Congregational church and that building is filled to its utmost capacity.

THE GOSSIP OF INDIAN FORD.

The People Who Have Visitors Or Are Visiting Themselves.

Indian Ford, Oct. 3.—Mrs. Savage of Cocksville, was a caller at R. Call's, last week. E. H. Brown of Center, was seen in our village Sunday night of this week. D. N. Walrath of southeast Fulton, and family were welcome visitors on R. Call's people last Sunday. C. S. Thomas has gone as a delegate from this lodge to the grand lodge which convened last week Thursday at Green Bay. Mrs. Charles Hallet, who was very sick is so much improved that she sits up most of the time. Phil Gary will work G. Lackner's farm the coming year. R. N. Johnson is building a dam across the old mill race on the east side. Joseph McCann sold a cow and calf to parties in Edgerton. George Lackner says that he will have the best barn of its size when completed. Clark Rider is said to have gone to the lake, where he will spend some time hunting. Oscar Tubbs has moved into Mr. McGrath's house on the west side of the river.

It is a truth in medicine that the smallest dose that performs a cure is the best. Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers are the smallest pills, will perform a cure, and are the best. C. D. Stevens.

A Golden Harvest is now insured to the farmers of the west and Northwest, and in order that the people of the more Eastern states may see and realize the magnificent crop conditions which prevail along its lines, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry. has arranged a series of three (3) harvest excursions for August 29, September 10 and 24, for which round trip excursion tickets (good for return on any Friday from September 13 to October 11 inclusive) will be sold to various points in the West, Northwest and Southwest at the low rate of about one fare.

For further particulars apply to the nearest coupon ticket agent or address GEO. H. HEAFFORD, Gen'l. Passenger Agent, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry., Chicago.

The healing properties of Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve are well known. It cures eczema, skin afflictions and is simply a perfect remedy for piles. C. D. Stevens.

A BARGAIN.
FOR SALE.—My house, barn and four full lots on Hickory street, just off Fourth Avenue. I will sell at very reasonable figure. A beautiful home for some one.

THE JANESEVILLE GAZETTE

THE ORDER A SHAM.

When The Gazette endorsed Mr. Cleveland a few days ago for putting minor consuls on the civil service list, it was under the impression that such a move had really been made. Administration organs gave it out with a flourish of trumpets, and salutes were fired in honor of the latest manifestation of reform. It now turns out, however, that the executive order issued on the subject is a sham. It is simply the revival of an old order of a quarter of a century ago, providing that the head of the state department might provide an examination for candidates. This old order has always been a dead letter. There is no reason to suppose its exhumation will put any life into its skeleton. It simply amounts to permitting the secretary of state to subject candidates to an examination, if he chooses, and to such examination as he chooses. This is not what the advocates of a reorganization of the civil service on the merit and competency basis desire. It is not likely to be followed by any practical steps to weed out unfit or incompetent men, or to better the efficiency and character of the service. We doubt if it will ever be done until congress takes hold of the matter and puts the service peremptorily on the merit basis.

RICHES FOR A DOCTOR.

Another physician is on the high road to riches. He is an Italian, and he says his patent serum, is death to tuberculosis. Whether it is or not he is sure of fame and fortune. An unpronounceable name and a new lymph are all that any doctor requires to make him independently wealthy these days. The avidity with which the public seizes upon anything in the shape of a cure is the foundation upon which not only reputable physicians, but quacks build their fortunes. If the Italian cure is worth anything it will be accepted eagerly enough, and if it is not, it will still be tried by scores of desperate, disease-stricken beings.

A CELL YAWNS FOR HIM.

Hotter and hotter grows the Maryland campaign. The Baltimore Sun (dem.) published for the benefit of its former political associate, Senator Gorman, the record of John Y. McKane, now sojourning in Sing Sing, as a result of tampering with registration lists in his capacity of boss. McKane's defense that he was only a boss and not an election officer failed to impress the jury, as did also his numerous certificates of piety. He was found to be the head of the whole conspiracy against the ballot, and the highest courts in New York affirmed his sentence.

HAD TO PINCH AND SCRAPE.

Sharp economy was forced upon the people of the United States by democratic times. The years 1892 and 1894 are compared in the official Statistical Abstract. The consumption of cotton per capita is shown to have fallen from 24.03 pounds to 15.91; the consumption of wheat from 6.90 bushels in 1890 to 3.41 in 1894. The per capita of corn consumption was 32.09 bushels in 1890 and 22.76 in 1894. The consumption of wool in the same time fell off more than one-sixth. When the figures of the present administration are made up they will fill one of the least creditable chapters in the history of the country.

Nobody wants to see a special session devoted to another gerrymander of the state. Enough gerrymandering has been done in the last four years. What the people want now, and what they should have is a redistricting on equitable lines, governed by the results of the last census and considerations of fairness, not by the desires of partisan bosses.

Methodists in session in Racine should do something to counteract the effect of Governor Altgeld's declaration that he attended the Methodist church when a boy.

Let's not have a campaign against the Oklahoma Indians until their "ugliness" proves to be something more than the Jackson Hole sort.

Enough petroleum is flowing from Los Angeles wells to make the San Francisco pipe line project seem perfectly feasible.

Careful study of theatre fashions shows that "wide effects" are more popular than ever in autumn millinery.

Most of the newspapers will have learned to spell Durran's name by the time the trial is forgotten.

Odd Fellows, Attention!

All members of the Odd Fellows Social and Beneficial Club are earnestly requested to be present at the club room, on North Main street, this evening, it being the yearly meeting for the election of officers. Business of importance will come before the meeting. All Odd Fellows cordially invited. J. F. HUTCHINSON, Pres. A. H. TAYLOR, Secy.

SAW DEATH AHEAD AND WAS AFRAID

G. M. ASHBROOK PREDICTED HIS TRAGIC END.

Before He Left Janesville He Said He Feared His Span of Existence Was Short and Bid His Friends Good Bye — The Funeral Held at Rockford Today.

The funeral of George M. Ashbrook, who was drowned at Rockford Monday, was held at that city at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the Winnebago M. E. church. The funeral of Leonidas Preston was held at the same time and place.

It now transpires that Mr. Ashbrook had had a premonition of death all summer. Several times he told his wife that he was not long for this earth, and made earnest requests of her that when he was dead she would see that he was not buried too soon. He begged to have his body kept for a week if possible after his death, having a great horror of premature burial. He had attended the meetings of the Salvation army several times during the past few weeks, and the other evening he got on the platform and spoke. During the course of his remarks he said that he would never appear on that platform again, hinting at his death which he thought would take place soon.

Bade His Friends Farewell

He came to Janesville a few days ago to settle up his affairs here, and shaking hands with his acquaintances, told them that they would never see him again. It was thought at the time that he meant he would not come back to the city out of preference, but now it is understood, in connection with his words to his wife, that his farewell had a deeper meaning.

Mr. Ashbrook was formerly a member of the south side Masonic and I. O. O. F. lodges at Rockford, but took withdrawal cards from each. His insurance in one of the orders would have expired at 12 o'clock Monday night, about eight hours after his death occurred. The coroner's jury decided that it was a case of accidental drowning.

Mrs. Preston and Mrs. Ashbrook did not know of the accident until they came up town about 6 o'clock and from the description of the boat and the clothing of the victims, they had no doubt that the double blow had fallen upon them. Their grief was terrible to witness and both ladies were nearly overcome.

A delegation of Odd Fellows from Lodge No. 90, of which Mr. Ashbrook was a member, attended the funeral today. Ashbrook took out a $1000 life policy in C. C. Bennett's agency in June, '93, but whether or not he kept it up is not known.

CROSSETT'S MILL IS RUNNING. Cotton Factory Water Has Been Leased For a Two Weeks' Run.

"Yes, 'Buckwheat Ben' is at it," said B. F. Crossett this morning when a Gazette reporter asked him what that rumbling noise was that greeted the ears of visitors at the post office.

"There's happiness on the race-way," he continued. "We have cotton factory water to run us two weeks. The gates were opened at 6:30 this morning and were grinding out the best buck wheat flour on earth just as fast as the wheels can turn. We have been idle for a long time and I tell you that hum is music. Guess I'll go in and sit by the biggest machine in the mill. I'd rather hear it than Sousa's band."

PECULIAR GALE AT EVANSVILLE

Building Wrecked While Fences Ten Feet Away Were Left Undisturbed.

A peculiar windstorm seemed to concentrated its force on E. Hubbard's tobacco shed near Evansville. It lifted a shed some eighty feet long off the foundation and chucked it on end, smashing it into splinters about thirty feet away, and with it all his farm machinery, which was stored therein. Total loss about $700. The building was the only thing touched for miles about, and a fence ten feet away was not damaged.

DARKENED BY DEATH'S PALL.

Mrs. Peter Ehrlinger.

THE best game of ball of this season will be played tomorrow between the Dubuque and Edgerton teams. The Dubuques have won many laurels this summer, and the Edgerton's usually team has been reinforced by some crack players. Arthur G. SAND the sugar, water the vinegar, and then come into prayers. That's what a certain merchant told his new clerk. That might work in some lines O. ## WILLARD HOME DEAL MEANS MUCH TO US

CHICAGO REAL ESTATE FIRM
CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS

Scheme Would Make Janesville the National Headquarters of the W. C. T. U.—Civil Engineer Kerch Does the Surveying and Makes the Plats.

The scheme to make the Willard farm, south of the city, a national W. C. T. U. rendezvous and establish thereon a home for aged temperance workers is very likely to be a go.

Incidentally, it is said, it will be a great thing for Janesville.

The scheme is no new thing, and neither is it simply the wild idea of some real estate firm. The proposition has been put on a business basis, and is being pushed by business men, Charles A. Maxon, of Rockford, an agent of the Curtiss company of Chicago, who have the deal in hand, has been to Janesville arranging matters and is much encouraged at the outlook. The company wrote C. V. Kerch, the civil engineer, last August, and engaged him to survey the property, and make a complete plat of what is known as the "Forest House Subdivision" of the homestead, which he did. Then he was told to lay out two hundred lots in the part known as "Willard Heights."

Lots Are All For Sale.

This he did and these lots are offered for sale all over the United States. The plats were made by Engineer Kerch and used in the printed matter sent out as are also illustrations made from photographs recently taken. The whole scheme was kept under cover until all the printed matter was ready, when it was announced and the circulars sent broadcast over the county but more especially to W. C. T. U. workers and sympathizers. When these lots are sold, the real estate firm agree to set apart the fifty acres on which the homestead is located for the establishing of the proposed home. The real estate firm are said to be certain of the scheme's success, and say it will give Janesville such a boom as it has never had for it would virtually make this city the headquarters of the W. C. T. U. workers of the country. The firm have received letters from Miss Willard, endorsing the project. The idea was thoroughly discussed at the last national W. C. T. U. meeting and was very favorably received. The farm is owned by C. W. Blackman, a White-water banker, and Curtiss & Co. have an option on it.

KEEPS POISON OUT

Poison In the Blood. The Kidneys Filter It Out and Keep the Blood Pure. They Protect Us From Many Dangerous Diseases.

What Happens When They Get Out of Order. How to Cure Them Again.

Most diseases are caused by poison in the blood.

The poison should be kept out.

The kidneys are supposed to do this. That is what they are there for.

And they generally do. But when they are sick they can't; and then we get sick.

The kidneys may get sick from over-work, worry, excess, high living, etc.

The reason so many of our great men die from Bright's disease is that so many overwork themselves.

Bright's disease is only one of many diseases the root of which lies in the kidneys.

Other folks suffer from diabetes, rheumatism, gout, gravel, sleeplessness, anaemia, nervousness, headache, neuralgia, etc.

All these diseases would go if the poison could be got out of your blood. If the kidneys would only do their work. If you would only take Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills to make your kidneys do their work.

It is not your kidney's fault.

You should be trying to help them. You should do it by taking Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills.

It is such an easy piece of knowl-edge to remember.

Your kidneys are simply filters. They need looking to now and then the same as other filters. If they are kept clean and healthy, they will keep your blood clean and healthy, and you will be strong and healthy.

Asparagus is a healing and strengthening tonic to the kidneys.

Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills give fresh life and power to the kidneys. They cause the kidneys to purify the blood, to make it healthier and redder and more nourishing. They put new life into your body, new color into your blood, new ambition into your mind, new youth into your joints and muscles.

They do not work miracles.

But they cure diseases.

Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills have cured so many people that they can be safely relied on to cure you.

They will cure you, not because they have cured others, but because they are made from herbs which have never failed to cure the kidneys when taken in proper doses.

They were prepared by a physician who knows how to cure the kidneys.

A few doses will relieve. A few boxes will cure.

Sold by all druggists for 50 cents per box, or sent postpaid on receipt of price.

Write for interesting pamphlet on the subject, to Hobb's Medicine Co., Chicago or San Francisco.

Who infest the market and are the means of robbing sick people of their money, and what is of still greater consequence of not infrequently aggravating the complaints under which they labor. It is an act of duty we owe to society to warn the people against these dangerous fakers. A little care on the part of the consumer will protect them from imposition by bearing in mind these facts: Never buy where it is offered in bulk (in kegs or jugs) as the genuine Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are sold only in bottles having the handsome steel plate label displaying the exact brand name (George and John Hostetter) and having at the bottom a signature note of hand for one cent, bearing a facsimile of the signature of the president of the company. Over the cork is a metallic cap, on which is impressed the name of the article, together with a medallion head in the center. Any person selling the counterfeit Hostetter's Stomach Bitters we shall be held to bring to justice, as we never fail to convict.

The dyspeptic carries a dreadful load on his back. It seems as if he were really made up of two men. One of them ambitious, brainy and energetic; the other sick, listless, peevish and without force. The weak man weighs the other one down. The dyspeptic may be able to do pretty good work one day, and the next day because of some little indiscretion in eating, he may be able to do nothing at all. Most cases of dyspepsia start with constipation. Constipation is the cause of nine-tenths of all human sickness. Some of its symptoms are sick and bilious headache, dizziness, sour stomach, loss of appetite, foul breath, windy belching, heartburn, pain and distress after eating. All these are indicative of derangement of the liver, stomach and bowels, and all are caused by constipation. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the quickest, easiest and most certain cure for this condition. They are not violent in action.

SUNDAY'S SERMON
BY DR. TALMAGESTORY OF GIDEON'S BATTLE
AT MOUNT GILBOA.

"And the Three Companies Blew the Trumpets, and Broke the Pitchers, and Held the Lamps in Their Left Hands"—Judges, vii, 20-21.

 HAT is the strangest battle ever fought. God had told Gideon to go down and thrash the Midianites, but his army is too large; for the story must be given to God, and not to man. And so proclamation is made that all those of the troops who are cowardly and want to go home may go, and twenty-two thousand of them scampered away, leaving only ten thousand men. But God says the army is too large yet; and so he orders these ten thousand remaining to march through a stream, and commands Gideon to notice in what manner these men drink of the water as they pass through it. If they get down on all fours and drink then they are to be pronounced lazy and incompetent for the campaign; but if, in passing through the stream, they scoop up the water in the palm of their hand and drink and pass on they are to be the men selected for the battle. Well, the ten thousand men marched down in the stream and the most of them come down on all fours and plunge their mouths, like a horse or an ox, into the water and drink; but there are three hundred men who, instead of stooping just dip the palm of their hands in the water and bring it to their lips, "lapping it as a dog lappeth." Those three hundred brisk, rapid, enthusiastic men are chosen for the campaign. They are each to take a trumpet in the right hand and a pitcher in the left hand and a lamp inside the pitcher, and then at a given signal they are to blow the trumpets and throw down the pitchers and hold up the lamps. So it was done.

It is night. I see a great host of Midianites, sound asleep in the valley of Jezreel. Gideon comes up with his three hundred picked men and when everything is ready the signal is given and they blow the trumpets and they throw down the pitchers and hold up the lamps and the great host of Midianites, waking out of a sound sleep, take the crash of the crockery and the glare of the lamps for the coming on of an overwhelming foe; and they run, and cut themselves to pieces, and horribly perish.

The lessons of this subject are very spirited and impressive. This seemingly valueless lump of quartz has the pure gold in it. The smallest dew-drop on the meadow at night has a star sleeping in its bosom, and the most insignificant passage of Scripture has in it a shining truth. God's mint coins no small change.

I learn in the first place, from this subject, the lawfulness of Christian stratagem. You know very well that the greatest victories ever gained by Washington or Napoleon were gained through the fact that they came when and in a way they were not expected—sometimes falling back to draw out the foe, sometimes crossing a river on unheard-of rafts; all the time keeping the opposing forces in wonderment as to what would be done next.

You all know what strategy is in military affairs. Now I think it is high time we had this art sanctified and spiritualized. In the church, when we are about to make a Christian assault, we send word to the opposing force when we expect to come, how many troops we have, and how many rounds of shot, and whether we will come with artillery, infantry, or cavalry, and of course we are defeated. There are thousands of men who might be surprised into the kingdom of God. We need more tact and ingenuity in Christian work.

It is in spiritual affairs as in military that success depends in attacking that part of the castle which is not armed and entrenched.

For instance, here is a man all armed on the doctrine of election; all his troops of argument and prejudice are at that particular gate. You may batter away at that side of the castle for fifty years and you will not take it; but just wheel your troops to the side gate of the heart's affections and in five minutes you can capture him. I never knew a man to be saved through a brilliant argument. You cannot hook men into the kingdom of God by the horns of a dilemma. There is no grace in syllogisms. Here is a man armed on the subject of perseverance of the saints; he does not believe in it. Attack him at that point and he will persevere to the very last in not believing it. Here is a man armed on the subject of baptism; he believes in sprinkling or immersion. All your discussion of ecclesiastical hydropathy will not change him. I remember when I was a boy that with other boys I went into the river on a summer day to bathe and we used to dash water on each other, but never got any result except that our eyes were blinded; and all this splashing of water between Baptists and Pedo-baptists never results in anything but the blurring of the spiritual eye-sight. In other words, you can never capture a man's soul at the point at which he is especially entrenched. But there is in every man's heart a bolt that can be easily shoved. A little child four years old may touch that bolt and it will spring back and the door will swing open and Christ will come in.

I think that the finest of all the fine arts is the art of doing good, and yet this art is the least cultured. We have in the kingdom of God today enough troops to conquer the whole earth for Christ if we only had skillful manoeuvring. I would rather have the three hundred lamps and pitchers of Christian stratagem than one hundred thousand drawn swords of literary and ecclesiastical combat.

I learn from this subject, also, that a small part of the army of God will have to do all the hard fighting. Gideon's army was originally composed of thirty-two thousand men, but they went off until there were only ten thousand left, and that was subtracted from until there were only three hundred. It is the same in all ages of the Christian Church; a few men have to do the hard fighting. Take a membership of a thousand and you generally find that fifty people do the work. Take a membership of five hundred and you generally find that ten people do the work. There are scores of churches where two or three people do the work.

We mourn that there is so much useless lumber in the mountains of Lebanon. I think, of the ten million membership of the Christian Church today, if five millions of the names were off the books the Church would be stronger. You know that the more cowards and drones there are in any army the weaker it is. I would rather have the three hundred picked men of Gideon than the twenty-two thousand unsifted host. How many Christians there are standing in the way of all progress! I think it is the duty of the Church of God to ride over them and the quicker it does it the quicker it does its duty.

Do not worry, oh Christian, if you have to do more than your share of the work. You had better thank God that he has called you to be one of the picked men, rather than to belong to the host of stragglers. Would not you rather be one of the three hundred that fight than the twenty-two thousand that run? I suppose those cowardly Gideoneites who went off congratulated themselves. They said: "We got rid of all that fighting, did not we? How lucky we have been; that battle costs us nothing at all." But they got none of the spoils of the victory. After the battle the three hundred men went down and took the wealth of the Midianites and out of the cups and platters of their enemies they feasted. And the time will come, my dear brethren, when the hosts of darkness will be routed, and Christ will say to his troops: "Well done, my brave men, go up and take the spoils! Be more than conquerors forever!" and in that day all deserters will be shot!

Again: I learn from this subject that God's way is different from man's, but is always the best way. If we had the planning of that battle we would have taken those thirty-two thousand men that originally belonged to the army and we would have drilled them and marched them up and down by the day and week and month, and we would have had them equipped with swords or spears, according to the way of arming in those times, and then we would have marched them down in solid column upon the foe. But that is not the way. God depletes the army and takes away all their weapons and gives them a lamp and a pitcher and a trumpet and tells them to go down and drive out the Midianites. I suppose some wiseacres were there who said: "That is not military tactics. The idea of three hundred men, unarmed, conquering such a great host of Midianites!" It was the best way. What sword, spear, or cannon ever accomplished such a victory as the lamp, pitcher and trumpet?

God's way is different from man's way, but it is always best! Take, for instance, the composition of the Bible. If we had had the writing of the Bible we would have said, "Let one man write it. If you have twenty or thirty men to write a poem, or make a statue, or write a history, or make an argument, there will be flaws and contradictions."

But God says: "Let not one man do it, but forty men shall do it." And they did, differing enough to show there had been no collusion between them, but not contradicting each other on any important point, while they all wrote from their own standpoint and temperament; so that the matter-of-fact man has his Moses; the romantic nature his Ezekiel; the epigrammatic his Solomon; the warrior his Joshua; the sailor his Jonah; the loving his John; the logician his Paul. Instead of this Bible, which now I can lift in my hand—instead of the Bible the child can carry to Sunday School—instead of the little Bible the sailor can put in his jacket when he goes to sea—if it had been left to men to write, it would have been a thousand volumes, judging from the amount of ecclesiastical controversy which has arisen. God's way is different from man's, but it is best, infinitely best.

So it is in regard to the Christian's life. If we had had the planning of a Christian's life we would have said:

"Let him have eighty years of sunshine, a fine house to live in; let his surroundings all be agreeable; let him have sound health; let no chill shiver through his limbs, no pain ache his brow, or trouble shadow his soul."

I enjoy the prosperity of others so much

I would let every man have as much money as he wants and roses for his children's cheeks and fountains of gladness glancing in their large round eyes.

But that is not God's way. It seems as if man must be cut, and hit, and pounded just in proportion as he is useful.

His child falls from a third-story window and has its life dashed out; his most confident investment tumbles him into bankruptcy; his friends, on whom he depended, aid the natural force of gravitation in taking him down; his life is a Bull Run defeat. Instead of twenty-two thousand advantages he has only ten thousand—ay, only three hundred—ay, none at all. How many people there are at their wits' end about their livelihood, about their reputation. But they will find out it is the best way after a while; God will show them that he de-pletes their advantages just for the same reason he depleted the army of Gideon—that they may be induced to throw themselves on his mercy.

A grape vine says in the early spring: "How glad I am to get through the winter! I shall have no more trouble now! Summer weather will come and the garden will be very beautiful!" But the gardener comes, and cuts the vine here and there with his knife. The twigs begin to fall and the grape vine cries out, "Murder! what are you cutting me for?" "Ah," says the gardener, "I don't mean to kill you. If I did not do this you would be the laughing stock of all the other vines before the season is over." Months go on, and one day the gardener comes under the trellis and the grape vine says: "Thank you, sir; you could not have done anything so kind as to have cut me with that knife." "Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth." No pruning, no grapes; no grinding mill, no flour; no battle, no victory; no cross, no crown!

So God's way, in the redemption of the world, is different from ours. If we had our way we would have had Jesus stand in the door of heaven and beckon the nations up to light, or we would have had angels flying around the earth proclaiming the unsearchable riches of Christ. Why is it that the cause goes on so slowly? Why is it that the chains stay on, when God could knock them off? Why do thrones of despotism stand when God could so easily demolish them? It is his way, in order that all generations may co-operate and that all men may know they cannot do the work themselves. Just in proportion as these pyramids of sin go up in height will they come down in ghastliness of ruin.

Oh, thou father of all iniquity! If thou canst hear my voice above the crackling of the flames, drive on thy projects, dispatch thy emissaries, build thy temples, and forge thy chains; but know that thy fall from heaven was not greater than thy final overthrow shall be when thou shalt be driven disarmed into thy fiery den, and for every lie thou hast framed upon earth thou shalt have an additional hell of fury poured into thine anguish by the vengeance of our God, and all heaven shall shout at the overthrow, as from the ransomed earth the song breaks through the skies, "Hallelujah! for the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth! Hallelujah!" for the kingdom of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord Jesus Christ!" God's way in the composition of the Bible, God's way in the Christian's life, God's way in the redemption of the world, God's way in everything—different from man's way, but the best.

I learn from this subject that the overthrow of God's enemies will be sudden and terrific. There is the army of the Midianites down in the valley of Jezreel. I suppose their mighty men are dreaming of victory. Mount Gilboa never stood sentinel for so large a host.

The spears and the shields of the Midianites gleam in the moonlight and glance on the eye of the Israelites, who hover like a battle of eagles, ready to swoop from the cliff. Sleep on, oh army of the Midianites! With the night to hide them and the mountain to guard them let no belligerent foeman dream of disaster! Peace to the captains and the spearmen!

I saw the defrauder in his splendid house. It seemed as if he had conquered God, as he stood amidst the blaze of chandeliers and pier mirrors. In the diamonds of the wardrobe I saw the tears of the widows whom he had robbed, and in the snowy satin the palor of the white-cheeked orphans whom he had wronged. The blood of the oppressed glowed in the deep crimson of the imported chair. The music trembled with the sorrow of unrequited toil. But the wave of mirth dashed higher on reefs of coral and pearl. The days and the nights went merrily. No sick child dared pull that silver doorknob. No beggar dared sit on that marble step. No voice of prayer floated amidst that tapestry. No shadow of a judgment day darkened that fresco. No tear of human sympathy dropped upon that upholstery. Pompy strutted the hall and Dissipation filled her cup, and all seemed safe as the Milianites in the valley of Jezreel. But God came. Calamity smote the money market. The partridge left its eggs unhatched. Crash went all the porcelain pitchers! Ruin, rout, dismay, and woe in the valley of Jezreel!

As for those who fight against God! Only two sides. Man immortal, which side are you on? Woman immortal, which side are you on? Do you belong to the three hundred that are going to win the day, or to the great host of Midianites asleep in the valley, only to be roused up in consternation and ruin? Suddenly the golden bowl of life will be broken and the trumpet blown that will startle our soul into eternity. The day of the Lord cometh as a thief in the night, and as the God-armed Israelites upon the sleeping foe. Ha! Canst thou pluck up courage for the day when the trumpet which hath never been blown shall speak the roll call of the dead and the earth, dashing against a lost meteor, have its mountains scattered to the stars and oceans emptied in the air? Oh, then, what will become of you? What will become of me?

If those Midianites had only given up their swords the day before the disaster, all would have been well; and if you will now surrender the sins with which you have been fighting against God you will be safe. Oh, make peace with him now, through Jesus Christ the Lord. With the clutch of a drowning man seize the Cross. Oh, surrender! surrender; Christ, with his hand on his pierced side, asks you to.
